

Nomination Form:
The Richard D. McLellan Prizes for Advancing Free Speech and Expression

Nominator Information

Name:

Mailing Address:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Nomination Information

Note on Eligibility: All Nominations for the Main Prize must have been released, printed, published or aired for the first time between January 1, 2023 and June 30, 2024. Summer research grants are prospective for the Summer of 2025.

- Identification of Individual, Group, Creative Work, or Activity being nominated: including full name, address, and contact information
- The Award candidate(s) is being nominated for:
 - 1) Main McLellan Prize of $50,000, or;
 - 2) McLellan Summer Research Grant of $12,500.
- Your relationship to the candidate:

- Title of candidate's work:
- Type of work:
- Date of work:

URL (if applicable):

- In 300-900 words, please tell us what merits this work for a McLellan Prize, and what your rationale is for making this nomination. What contribution has the candidate made to advancing free speech and expression? Please also address the merits of this nomination with reference to the nominations criteria found in the McLellan Prizes brochure at <https://kirkcenter.org/mclellan-prizes/>
- In no more than 250 words, what are the principal achievements of the nominee?
- Is there anything further you would like the judges to know about the merits of this nominee and the future of free speech and ordered liberty in America?

Please email this completed nomination information to the attention of the McLellan Prizes Committee: mclellanprizes@kirkcenter.org.